TAFT TALKS SLAVERY

Conditions in the Philippines Aired Before a House Committee.

NOT RECOGNIZED BY CIVIL POWER.

Moro Slaves, He Claims, Would Resist Attempts at Their Liberation. General Hughes on Conditions on Samar.

Washington, March 4.—The extent of slavery in the Philippines was discussed by Governor Taft before the house insular committee in response to questions by members. He said slavery was confined to the southern Moro islands. The investigation made by Governor Taft and his associates had brought out that the slaves included men, women and children who were slaves for debt, according to the statements made by Datos. The slaves could buy their liberty, but until this was done the condition ran from generation to generation. The slaves were members of the family and the relation was comparatively mild. Governor Taft said Dato Mundi had already abolished slavery by decree. How effective this was could not be stated. The civil authorities had never recognized slavery in any way, he said, and the military had always released slaves. But the slaves did not understand the advantage of liberty, and Governor Taft said that if we attempted to end slavery by force, we would probably find the slaves turning their guns against us.

Governor Taft said that the influence of the United States was, however, growing stronger and stronger for the eradication of slavery. Although our wishes had been made known, yet neither the civil or military authority had said slavery must cease or war would be made.

Representative Patterson of Tennessee asked the number of slaves. Governor Taft replied that he and his associates had sought to learn the number with the idea that we might buy them and avert an exercise of force, but when the natives learned this they all represented themselves as slaves. The governor estimated about one-fourth of the southern population as slaves, or from 250,000 or 300,000 in a population of 1,000,000 to 1,500,000.

Hughes on Samar.

Washington, March 4.—In his testimony before the senate committee on the Philippines, General Hughes related the particulars of the massacre at Balangigi, Samar, Sept. 1. He took upon himself the responsibility for the sending of troops to that post and for the selection of the officer who was placed in command. "I had known him for years," he said, "he was a fine officer and I had every confidence in him." General Hughes said, however, that he was convinced the disaster was due to overconfidence. Speaking of the native soldiers, General Hughes said they generally did well, but should not be trusted except under command of American superiors.

Flouring Mill Combine.

Portland, Or., March 4.—The largest industrial consolidation ever undertaken in the Pacific northwest is being quietly worked into shape in this city and San Francisco. The enterprise is an amalgamation of the interests of the great export flour milling firms of the Pacific coast. No hint has been given as to the capitalization of the proposed consolidation, but it will probably be somewhere in the neighborhood of $10,000,000. As now outlined, the combination will embrace mills having an annual capacity of over 5,000,000 barrels of flour. The corporations interested in the proposed combine are the Portland Flouring mills of this city, the Puget Sound Flouring mills company and the Tacoma and Centennial mills of Seattle and Spokane and the Sperry flour mills of Stockton and San Francisco.

After the Merger.

Trenton, N. J., March 4.—Senator Gebhart, Democrat, introduced a bill in the senate to repeal and dissolve the charter and corporate existence of the Northern Securities company. The bill has a long preamble, in which it is stated among other things, that the company was organized to enable the Northern Pacific railroad company and the Great Northern railroad company to violate the laws of several states and interfere with their revenues and also to destroy the competition in passenger and freight rates that existed between these railroads. The preamble goes on to say that the organization has aroused great public indignation. The bill was referred to the committee on corporations.

To be constantly pulling up the seeds of life to see if they have sprouted is a serious menace to the health of the plants.—Ladies' Home Journal.

DAMAGE ENORMOUS.

Flood Conditions Improving in the East and South.

New York, March 4.—Flood conditions in the east are reported rapidly improving, although in the Wyoming valley and northeastern Pennsylvania generally and along the Hudson, near Albany, are still in bad shape. Dispatches from Wilkesbarre, Pa., show that more than a score of lives were lost and $5,000,000 worth of property was destroyed in northeastern Pennsylvania. The danger is over, but the full extent of the damage is yet to be seen. Eighteen thousand homeless persons in the Wyoming valley are anxiously watching the backward course of the waters. The water has receded in Paterson, N. J., so that the danger there is practically over, but there were many daring rescues of persons who had stayed in the flooded houses. So many mills were damaged that 10,000 operatives are thrown out of work for an indefinite time. In Passaic men are reported to have been carried down with a bridge which was washed away. The current was so swift that it was impossible to rescue them.

Situation Improved.

Chattanooga, Tenn., March 4.—Official reports received at the railroad headquarters here show that the situation in the flooded districts is improved. The Southern's loss between Morristown and Asheville will aggregate from $200,000 to $250,000 to roadbed and bridges alone. The loss by delayed and annulled trains and cutting off all passenger and freight traffic since last Thursday will be very large. About 300 men are repairing the road and bridges on the Asheville branch.

Town Inundated.

Danville, Pa., March 4.—Danville since Saturday last has been practically cut off from all communication by rail with neighboring towns. The river attained a height of 24 feet 9 inches, the highest in 37 years. Nearly half the town is inundated. Five trains including two passenger trains have been stalled at South Danville since Saturday. The tracks on the Pennsylvania and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western lines for several miles are submerged.

Damage by the Flood.

Allentown, Pa., March 4.—A half million dollars will not, it is estimated, cover the loss in this city and vicinity by the recent floods. Ice floes carried away two large bridges, one at the lower end of the New Jersey Central railroad in this city, the other a private bridge of the Lehigh Iron company. One life was lost in the flood—a farmer named Snyder—being drowned in Watsburg, while trying to cross a stream with his team.

Ohio Flood at Its Crest.

Cincinnati, March 4.—The Ohio river here has reached its crest of 50½ feet. While it is possible that a slight rise may follow there will be no substantial addition. No ice has reached here and the river is free from drift-wood.

Esterhazy in New York.

New York, March 4.—Major Ferdinand Welsin Esterhazy, who confessed that he forged the Dreyfus bordereau, has, it is reported, been seen in this city. He is said to have spent two hours in a Broadway restaurant in animated conversation with a young man and woman. Major Esterhazy declined to be a witness in the Dreyfus trial in 1899, and later fled to England, where he confessed to being the author of the bordereau. He declared that he committed the forgery under order of Colonel Sandherr and his superior officers. After making the confession Major Esterhazy announced his intention of coming to the United States for the purpose of lecturing. Since his flight from France he has lived in obscurity in England.

Kitchener's Drastic Action.

London, March 4.—A strange story is exciting much discussion among military men, although it has been kept out of both press and parliament. It relates to alleged reprisals taken by Australian troops for alleged Boer outrages in firing upon wounded and draconian measures accepted by Lord Kitchener for enforcing discipline. It is stated that the Australian officers and men who took the law of retaliation into their own hands were tried by court martial and some of them were sentenced to be shot. Nothing official has been obtained on the matter in London.

Hamilton O., March 4.—The postoffice at Oxford was discovered to have been robbed of $1,500 in stamps and $100 in cash by Postmaster W. B. Wallace. The safe, a small iron affair, was forced with chisels and the combination knocked off. Everything of value was taken and the remaining contents scattered over the floor. The robbery was bold and well planned.

CORRUPT PRACTICES.

Ohio House Quietly Passes the Bill Repealing the Act.

NO EFFORT AT PARTY DIVISION.

Police Powers Bestowed on Interurban and Railway Conductors. Local Option Bill—Other Measures in the Legislature.

Columbus, O., March 4.—The house passed the Devaul bill to repeal the corrupt practices act, known as the "Garfield law," by a vote of 59 to 24. There was very little discussion and Democrats and Republicans voted alike on the measure. It was given as the belief of the friends of the measure that it will pass the senate with as little struggle as was its course through the lower branch.

The Brannock bill, which bestows full police powers upon interurban and steam railway conductors was again taken up and passed as amended. This is the bill which formerly made a policeman of every street car conductor and which was reconsidered on the date after its passage. City street car conductors are now excluded from the privileges of the law and those who are included must first have served three months before they are eligible to exercise police authority.

Other bills were passed in the house as follows: To authorize Dayton to issue $100,000 water works bonds; to compel bicycle riders to give two-thirds of the road when meeting other vehicles; to prohibit the indiscriminate distribution of samples of drugs and patent medicines among children under 14 years of age.

Mr. Myers introduced a bill providing that justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction in all cases prosecuted under the Beal local option bill. The bill is so framed that trials by jury can be avoided. A Sunday baseball law was introduced, extending to all municipalities the right to control this matter to suit themselves. Another measure launched gives the veto power to the governor.

Representative Barhart introduced a bill to punish by fine of from three to five thousand dollars or imprisonment for from one to seven years all bank officials who receive deposits after knowing the bank is insolvent. A redistricting proposition introduced for the state legislature seeks to have each county represented by at least one representative.

In the Senate.

The senate passed a bill by Senator Thompson of Columbus, providing for a chaplaincy at the Ohio penitentiary for Father Kelly and fixing his salary at $500 a year.

Mr. Comings' house bill raising the age limit from 15 to 21 years, at which deaf mutes may attend day schools, was made a law.

Other bills passed: H. B. authorizing Kenton, O., to transfer $4,347.93 from its water works sinking to improvement fund; H. B. providing no person a candidate for an office shall serve as deputy supervisor or clerk of an election board; H. B. requiring that county commissioners must provide for the care of soldiers and sailors graves where located in exclusive burial plots; S. B. requiring a majority instead of a two-third vote in the issue of sewer bonds in municipalities of the second class and fourth grade.

A bill was introduced to repeal section 3643 which compels fire insurance companies to pay full amount of insurance in case of total destruction without regard to whether firm may have property over-insured.

The Beal local option bill was referred to the committee on taxation, certain senators showing a disposition to dodge.

Boys Publicly Spanked.

New York, March 4.—Two policemen with broad hands and plenty of strength hark of them acted as masters of ceremonies at a public spanking administered to six youthful delinquents in Kearney, N. J., police court. The boys, whose ages ranged from 10 to 12 years, were brought before Recorder Krebs on charges of opening freight cars and destroying property. Recorder Krebs sentenced each to a good hard "spanking" as the alternative of a $5 fine. The parents spoke for the boys and chose the spanking.

Smallpox on Board.

San Francisco, March 4.—The United States transport Meade, which sailed for Manila on Saturday last, returned flying the yellow flag and anchored at the quarantine station. The Meade's return was due to discovery of a case of smallpox and on account of a case of scarlet fever among the recruits on board.

WIRELESS TELEPHONY.

French Engineer's Description of His Wonderful Invention.

Paris, March 4.—E. Ducrotet, the French electrical engineer, has made the following statement concerning the wireless telephony which he has invented: "The Academy of Science, to which my invention of telephoning without wires has been submitted, acknowledges its value. The transmitter and receiver are much like those in daily use for the ordinary telephone. There is difference, that a small coil is introduced and the electrical intensity is slightly increased. When the instruments are put down deep in the earth messages can be transmitted over enormous distances. Forests, rivers, mountains may separate armies, yet they can communicate with each other through the earth by wireless telephony. Wireless telephone messages can be transmitted through sea from shore to shore or between ships. The voice can be transmitted without the least difficulty and most delicate articulation reaches the ear."

Nephew of Jeff Davis.

New York, March 4.—There was a cast in the Henry foundry here that is said to be the first memorial to be erected on British soil to the memory of those who fell during battles in South Africa. The first name on its roll of honor is that of Lieutenant Charles Carroll Wood, the son of Captain J. Taylor Wood, commander of the Tallahassee, a Confederate war vessel. The latter was the nephew of Jefferson Davis and grandson of President Zachary Taylor.

Second Colored Normal.

Eldorado, Ill., March 4.—The colored normal and industrial institute similar in character to the Tuskegee, Ala., school of which Booker T. Washington is principal, and the second of its kind in the world, was opened here under favorable auspices. The institution was secured through funds collected by popular subscription by the Cuba Libre industrial association, and includes a farm and commodious buildings one-half mile from here.

Anarchist Arrested.

Paris, March 4.—An anarchist named Libertad was arrested as the principal instigator of the disturbance following an exciting meeting of unemployed held here at the Labor Exchange, when the agitators attempted to hold a meeting on the Place de la Republique. Libertad will be prosecuted for inciting to murder. The foreign participants in the disturbance will be expelled from France.

Report Against Panama Route.

Washington, March 4.—The subcommittee of the committee on inter-oceanic canals agreed to recommend to the full committee that the legal complications surrounding the Panama offer are such that the United States should not accept it. This subcommittee consists of Senators Morgan, Mitchell, Kittredge, Pritchard, Foster (La.) and Turner.

Missing Man Located.

Alpena, Mich., March 4.—Fred W. Hagen, the missing city treasurer, has been located in Mexico, 70 miles from the Texas frontier. His alleged shortage amounts to $9,900. A warrant has been issued for his arrest and suit has been brought against the company which was on his bond.

Porte's Reply.

Constantinople, March 4.—The United States minister, J. A. Leishman, has presented a note to the porte regarding the capture of Miss Ellen M. Stone by brigands, demanding the punishment of the guilty parties. The porte, in replying, repudiates responsibility and denies all liability.

Mother and Son Perished.

Dunnville, Ont., March 4.—Mrs. George Grock and her young son were drowned in a creek at Canham. The son had fallen into the water and his mother endeavored to rescue him. She also fell in and both perished.

Canadian Murdered.

Mobile, Ala., March 4.—John Tucker, a Canadian, was murdered at Hamilton's Bluff by an unknown negro. Tucker, who has relatives in Detroit and Montreal, was engaged in farming on a large scale.

Attorney Pleads Guilty.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 4.—Ex-City Attorney Lant K. Salebury pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court to a charge of violating the United States banking law.

Fishing Schooner Ashore.

Lookport, N. Y., March 4.—The American fishing schooner Reliance, with a crew of 18, is ashore eight miles off here and probably will be a total loss.

Hamilton, O., March 4.—Pretty Mamie Cameron of Oxford is dead at Mercy hospital of peritonitis. A short time ago Keely Kyler shot himself at her doorstep because she refused him her hand.

HENRY AT MILWAUKEE

Tremendous Ovation Accorded the Brother of the Emperor.

THE WHOLE CITY IN GALA ATTIRE.

Public Reception and Banquet the Features of the Occasion—Closing Incidents of the Visit to the City of Chicago.

Milwaukee, March 4.—Prince Henry of Prussia arrived at Milwaukee at 4 p. m. to remain six hours. He was accorded a tremendous ovation. Considerable of a program had been arranged. He was escorted in a carriage through the principal business and residence streets of the city, reviewed 1,000 German war veterans, attended a public reception at the exposition building, witnessed a fire run and was the guest of honor at a banquet at the hotel Pfister, given by the citizens of Milwaukee.

The city had a holiday appearance. German flags floated from many buildings. On the city hall, the United States and German flag floated side by side. The decorations at the exposition building where the public reception was held were lavish. The greatest display of decorations was in the line of electric arches. The arches span the street every hundred feet. At the banquet toasts were drunk to the president of the United States, the emperor of Germany and Prince Henry of Prussia. The first two were drunk in silence, the last being responded to by Prince Henry. At the conclusion of the banquet Prince Henry was presented with an album of photographs of prominent buildings of Milwaukee and other notable views.

Chicago's Farewell.

Chicago, March 4.—The Chicago which Prince Henry of Prussia saw Monday night by the glare of many lights was represented to him by the clearer light of the sun. The welcome which he received was repeated and emphasized Tuesday and he was given further opportunity to enjoy his expressed desire of meeting American citizens at close range. During the day he listened to an address from the Central band of St. Paul, placed a wreath on the Lincoln monument in Lincoln park and enjoyed the luncheon and reception at the Germania club. The presentation of the address of Governor Van Sant of Minnesota was the first detail of the day's official program. The prince received the governor and a committee accompanying him in his private parlor car after he had eaten breakfast. The ladies of the Germania club presented the prince with a magnificent cut glass vase to be given to his wife, the Princess Irene. This incident pleased the prince very much. At 2 p. m. he departed for Milwaukee.

Von Buelow on Prince's Reception.

Berlin, March 4.—In the reichstag, Count Von Buelow, imperial chancellor, referred to the splendid welcome that Prince Henry was receiving from the American people. This remark of Count Von Buelow was greeted with applause from all sections of the house. Continuing the imperial chancellor said that the journey of the emperor's brother had no political object save the natural one of upholding the traditional good relations between Prussia, Germany and the United States, which has existed since the days of the great Frederick and the great Washington. "Both nations," said Count Von Buelow, "have every reason for mutual esteem. They have no occasion whatever, to bemoan one another or dispute with one another. They have every interest for living in peace and friendship, based upon completed reciprocity, even in the most remote future."

Fire and Fatalities.

Marshalltown, Ia., March 4.—Fire destroyed half a block of buildings in the heart of the city, entailing a loss of $75,000, resulting in injuries to several guests and employees of the Tremont hotel, and possibly two deaths. The missing: Frank Kinzie, bartender, Waterloo, Ia.; unknown woman. Forty guests of the hotel had but little time to escape as the flames spread rapidly, cutting off avenues of escape. Many of the employees jumped from first floor balcony to the pavement in their night clothes. Three injured girls jumped from the third story to the front balcony, and others jumped to the awning and escaped uninjured. The fire caught at the base of the elevator in the hotel.

NEWSPAPERS BEST OF ALL.

No Better Advertising Medium Can Be Found Anywhere.

At the monthly dinner of the Cleveland Ad Club, J. W. Hagar read a valuable paper on "What Shall Be Considered in Selecting an Advertising Medium?" He said in part:

"In selecting an advertising medium it depends upon the line of goods which is to be given publicity. The physician subscribes to a periodical that treats of his profession, and he naturally looks there for any innovation in his line. The same rule may be applied to the machinist, the plumber, the clothier, the haberdasher, and so on through the whole list of trades and professions. Hence, what are termed trade journals may be considered good mediums when it is desired to reach a particular class.

"There are many other mediums through which good advertising may be done, but in my opinion the newspaper excels them all. The newspaper has no equal as a dispenser of publicity. No matter what you have to offer.

"In selecting the newspaper two items of equal importance should be considered: Quality and quantity of circulation. Take two papers of equal circulation, the one which goes to the middle and better classes is worth more than that which goes to the middle and poorer classes.

"The reason is obvious. The purchasing power of the middle and upper classes is certainly greater than that of the middle and lower classes. Their ability to read, understand and retain is also greater. Thus the logical conclusion is that the newspaper which caters to the middle and better classes has an accumulative value which is not found in the other. Find the circulation of the newspaper and the territory it covers and you can get very near to its real value as an advertising medium."

Sheep and Dogs in Tennessee.

[New York Tribune.]

In the year 1870 there were in the State of Tennessee 800,000 sheep and 200,000 dogs. Thirty years later, in 1900, there were in the same State 200,000 sheep and 800,000 dogs, while, apparently, it is only a question of a few years when there will be a million of dogs in the State and no sheep at all.

The Senate has passed the bill introduced by Representative Kehoe, establishing a new point for holding court in the Eastern judicial district at Catlettsburg, in May and December. As originally reported, the bill changed the time for holding court in all cities authorized by the act passed in the last Congress. Owing to the objection of attorneys, however, it was withdrawn and the bill affecting Catlettsburg alone was substituted.

The Board of Control of the Endowment Rank of the Knights of Pythias issued a statement Monday showing the affairs of the rank are being rapidly straightened out by President Neal. FORTUNES IN OIL!

Kentucky just now is attracting prospectors from all over the land. The wells already sunk prove it a very rich oil producer. MONEY INVESTED NOW MAY DOUBLE OR QUADRUPE IN LESS THAN A MONTH.

Our holdings consist of about 5,000 acres in Wayne County, near the great Sunnybrook field, about 6,000 acres in Lincoln County, and 600 acres in Licking Valley in Bath County, close up to Ragland. Our first two wells near Ragland are producers. We have started to drill in all three counties, and expect to strike oil in every well. We are still acquiring valuable lands in addition to those already secured, and lying in close proximity to the greatest developments in the State.

A limited amount of the treasury stock will be sold, at $5 per share, par value of shares $10 each. This stock will, we confidently believe, be selling for par in thirty days.

INNES AND HIS BAND.

This Famous Organization to Play Here This Afternoon—A Musical Treat.

Innes' invasion of the orchestral field with a combination of brass and reed instruments and re-inforced only by the bass viola and harp, has been a matter of wonderment. The best critics held that the idea was impossible. Innes has proved these predictions to be wrong. Through his ability as a drill master and as the result of tedious and patient toil, aided by new combinations of reed instruments in connection with string basses, saxophones and bassoons, he has at last realized his ambition, and become the head of a concert band that beside being thoroughly orchestral in tone, is distinctive in its class.

This organization will play here this afternoon. Doors open at 1:30 o'clock. Concert begins at 2:15.

Maysville is to have a new city directory. Mr. F. M. French, representing J. Wiggins & Co., is in the city and has commenced the work. Wiggins & Co. are well known directory publishers and Mr. French guarantees Maysville a complete and up-to-date directory, of the city and county. This city is in need of a new directory, as the last one was published in 1897, and is out of date. This firm is now engaged in getting out a directory for Lexington.

NEWS FROM FRANKFORT.

Capital Removal Bill Killed by Senate Tuesday—Confederate Home Bill Goes to Governor.

The Coleman Confederate Home bill, which passed the Senate two weeks ago, passed the House Tuesday by a vote of 73 to 1, Representative Hanna (Rep.) alone voting against it. The bill provides $125 per capita to the amount of $10,000. The Farris "county unit" local option bill was called up in the Senate at noon Tuesday and made a special order for today.

Klair's bill, specifying the duties of City Engineers in second-class cities, and making the salary $1,800, passed the House.

The Senate Tuesday killed the Barton-Barker capital removal bill by a vote of 23 to 13. An appropriation will now be made for a new Capital at Frankfort.

The Senate came near having a Tillman-McLaurin episode of its own Monday over the prison investigation report. On Saturday when Senator White (Rep.) charged that the Democrats on the committee had endeavored by their questions to witnesses and in other ways to cover up the real condition of things in the Frankfort prison, Senator Carroll, who examined most of the witnesses for the Democrats, was absent. Monday when the question came up on the majority and minority reports there were some more intimations from the Republicans about the majority report being a whitewash. Senator Carroll, in a very calm, dispassionate, but firm tone, said any charge from any Senator that he or any Democrat of the committee had made any attempt to cover up or smother any of the testimony was a willful, malicious falsehood, and that he was prepared to stand by what he said.

Senator White said he thought Carroll had not been correctly informed about what had been said; that he stood by and reiterated what he said Saturday. He did not make his charges as specific as he did Saturday, however, and while Carroll walked over toward White and sat down near him nothing further was said or done. By a vote of 21 to 11 the testimony filed by the minority report was stricken out and a motion to allow the testimony to be withdrawn was voted down, also a motion to have the testimony printed. The majority report was adopted by a vote of 20 to 11.

BIG SNOW.

This Section Visited by the Heaviest Fall in Many Years—Over Eight Inches.

The snow storm that set in Tuesday morning about 9:30 o'clock has proved the worst in many years. Not since about 1880 has there been such a fall of the beautiful. There has been no let up from the start, unless it was during the night.

The local weather observer reports a total of 8.1 inches up to 6:30 o'clock this morning. This measurement was out in an open space where there was no drifting. This corresponds also to the snow in the gauge when melted. In places, however, near buildings, fences, &c. the snow is badly drifted making travel very difficult.

The electric cars managed to get along all right until after dark last night, but finally had to quit. One of the cars west of the creek is snow bound at the post-office corner and the other is on Bridge street, near corner of Third. The work of clearing the track is in progress, and it is thought the cars will be able to reach Bridge street by noon and Sutton or Wall by evening.

The snow is reported very heavy all along the C. and O. east of here—from ten to twelve inches. Train No. 1 was nearly three hours late this morning, and the Huntington accommodation was an hour late.

DIED LAST NIGHT.

Charles W. Hill Passes Away After a Linger- ing Illness—To be Buried To-morrow.

Mr. Charles W. Hill, whose serious illness was mentioned Tuesday, died last night about 12 o'clock at his home at the Hill House. He had been afflicted for several years with a disease affecting his spine.

Mr. Hill was the youngest son of the late Charles B. Hill and was about forty-one years old. He is survived by three sisters, among them Mrs. R. B. Lovel.

The remains will be removed to the home of Mrs. Lovel to-morrow morning, where the funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Dr. Molloy officiating. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.

The warehouse owned by Mrs. N. G. Foster, at Manchester, and occupied by Kirkpatrick Bros., dealers in leaf tobacco, was destroyed by fire Monday night about 7 o'clock. Loss $5,000. Insurance on building $1,000. The light from this fire was seen by people in Maysville, but they thought the fire was only a few miles back of Aberdeen.

A warmly contested game of hand ball was played at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium yesterday afternoon between Rev. F. W. Harrop, Mr. James T. Kackley, Mr. H. H. Barkley and Rev. R. E. Moes, Mr. Thos. D. Slattery and Secretary Pilkington. The three latter won by a good score over the first three. Hand ball is a scientific game, and it is expected that there will be several strong contests here before long. Business men's gymnasium class will meet Friday at 4 p. m.

Captain Wall's Pickups versus the Crestfallen Tourists Thursday night.

Times-Star: "Two Kentuckians, David Estis, forty, a tobacco dealer, of Wheatly, and Wm. B. Throckmorton, twenty-five, a druggist, of Mt. Oliver, created a furor along George street Monday night. Each had a loaded 38-caliber revolver. Besides, Estis carried a big bottle of whisky, supposed to be of the moonshine brand, and Throckmorton carried a dirk. A girl came running to Officer Ryan and Heuftlein about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning and said the two men were flourishing their revolvers in the resorts. The officers found the men and arrested them on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. Their cases were continued to March 19."

In some of the Swiss valleys the inhabitants are all afflicted with goitre or "thick neck." Instead of regarding this as a deformity they seem to think it a natural feature of physical development, and tourists passing through the valleys are sometimes jeered by the goitrous inhabitants, because they are without this offensive swelling. Thus a form of disease may become so common that it is regarded as a natural and necessary condition of life. It is so, to a large extent, with what are called diseases of women. Every woman suffers more or less from irregularity, ulceration, debilitating drains, or female weakness, and this suffering is so common and so universal that many women accept it as a condition natural and necessary to their sex. But it is a condition as unnatural as it is unnecessary. The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription strengthens the delicate womanly organs and regulates the womanly functions, so that woman is practically delivered from the pain and misery which eat up ten years of her life—between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.
